

Career Support for Working Holiday Visa Holders

FREE career development support for Working Holiday visa holders enrolled in an ILAC Education Group program

Free Services Provided by the Canada Employment Forum for Students Enrolled in an ILAC program

Our services and resources are delivered by a team of experts who understand the Canadian job market, and who work with trusted employers to ensure that our service users are provided with the most up to date career guidance, job search strategies, and work readiness skills.

The Canada Employment Forum is here to help support you as you navigate the Canadian Job Market.

Our workshops and 1:1 sessions cover many topics related to employment, such as:

- Employment Rights
- Interviewing with Confidence
- Market Insights
- Leadership Development
- Scam Prevention
- Find Your Confidence
- Professional Certifications
- Career Mapping
- In-Person Networking

Exclusive Workshops, Services, & 1:1 Support

Prior to Arrival

Once you have enrolled in an ILAC course, you'll be able to attend our pre-arrival workshops (with a Q&A) before you arrive in Canada or while in Canada.

- Resume Writing
- Job Search Strategies
- Your Rights as an Employee
- Your First Steps in Canada

During Your Studies

Once your program begins, you'll have access to a number of resources online and in person.

- You can attend workshops or 1:1 consultations in person or online
- Online self-guided Career Readiness Course
- Courses to enhance your work readiness (professional communications, digital literacy, workplace skills etc.)
- Job Search & Application Support

